BOWSER GOES TO WAR W A

Rut He Comes Back Within Two Hours, a Bluffed and Beaten Hero.

Bowser went over to the drug store after dinner the other night and was said to Mrs. Bowser: There were three of four men in the drug store and we got to talking about the war. I tell you the days for the fighting here have come back."

"I have been thinking so for a year past," quietly replied Mrs. Bowser.
"What a chance it has given men to make a great name for themselves for

And the histories will be full of ir names for scores of years to "Even the women have carried the flag in some of the battles," said Mrs.

lowser.

'I have read so," was the reply, and I honor them for it, but, of ourse, this is no women's war. They may let the husbands do the fight-

"But suppose the husbands don't want to do the fighting?"
"It can't suppose anything of the sort, Mrs. Bowser. Is there even a man in this neutral country whose blood does not run faster as he thinks of bullet and shell and the shouts of victory? Not one. He knows there are wounds and death on the battle-field, but there is also glory and fame. By George, Mrs. Bowser, but what a chance what a chance!

"And you will take novantage of it?" I have

The miles from Topeks, in the Great Kansas Fruit Belt, sandy soil. Has been inspected and pronounced by our state horticultus t land in Kansas, and by government experts to be the finest ion in the United States. I bought this farm with the intention of MODEL FRUIT FARM but business matters have come up in the past few weeks that will occupy my time so that I have concluded to sell it. The improvements are a 7-room house, large barn, crib, cemented milk house, chicken house and hog house; fine cistern, well and spring water; several fields fenced hog tight; about 10 acres fruit, consisting of apples, pears, plums, peaches, strawberries and other small fruits; about 12 acres alfalfa and sweet clover. Most of the land has been rotated with these two crops the past 5 years. This farm can be made to earn large profits with proper management. Price reasonable; terms easy.
